

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors consists of at least three Directors, a majority of whom shall be independent. The Committee meets at least annually, or more frequently as required.

The purpose of the Compensation Committee is to assist the Board in discharging its duties relating to compensation of the executive officers of the Company, the goals are to enable the Company to attract, retain and motivate the most qualified talent who will contribute to the long term success of the Company by aligning compensation with the Company's business objectives and performance, and aligning incentives with the interests of shareholders to maximize shareholders' value.

The Committee's duties and responsibilities are:

- To make recommendations to the Board with respect to the compensation of senior management and executive officers of the Company.
- To review the compensation and benefits of the directors in their capacity as directors of the Company to ensure that such compensation reflects the responsibilities and risks involved in being a director.
- To review and make recommendations to the Board as to the general compensation and benefits policies and practices of the Company, including incentive stock options for all employees, consultants, directors and officers.
- To review the disclosure to be made of director and executive remuneration in the Management Information Circular.
- To ensure there are appropriate training, development and benefit programs in place for management and staff.
- To review and make recommendations to the Board for its approval on any special compensation and benefit arrangements.
- To review its compensation practices by comparing them to surveys of relevant competitors and to set objective compensation based on this review.
- To perform such other functions as the Board may from time to time assign to the Committee.
- To review its charter and assess annually the adequacy of this mandate, the effectiveness of its performance, and to recommend changes to the Board for its approval.

This charter was reviewed by the Corporate Governance Committee and last approved by the board of directors on February 7, 2022.
